Kenna is a cheerful, funny 2 year old who loves to laugh and talk. Entertaining runs in her blood - her parents are both professional actors and her dad travels around the world as a stand-up comedian.

Kenna is very verbal and can count to ten in five languages. She's also very agile and can army-crawl, climb ropes (assisted), and do toddler burpees thanks to her "kiddie cross-fit" class.

Kenna enjoys watching herself make faces in the microwave, eating Play-Doh, and talking nonsense.
