

PROFILE

Clients receive a fast turnaround of broadcast quality audio recorded in my professional acoustically treated studio.

I have a wide vocal range including young adult, middle-age, and senior characters. My selection of authentic, conversational and relatable, serious and authoritative narrators, to silly, playful, youth-oriented characters give every production the right voice to best interpret your creative efforts.

I also have full production capabilities including Copywriting, Licensed Music, SFX, Mixing and Mastering.
