Marty Rosen, LEO Weekly: "...and this virtuoso cast is perfectly honed... Durs, a freshman at YPAS, but a veteran of several Commonwealth Theatre productions, gives a powerful, nuanced performance in a demanding, heart-wrenching role." (Harbor)

Keith Waits, Arts-Louisville: "Brooklyn Durs is so fully in command in these scenes, so fluidly expressive of the emotional life of the character, that she becomes the beating heart of the production." (Henry V)

"...Brooklyn Durs is memorable as Mary Warren, a crucial character." (The Crucible)

Eli Keel, Insider Louisville: "The student who plays the main antagonist...and another portraying Proctor's young house keeper Mary Warren (Brooklyn Durs) offer the best student performances, embodying the terrible combination of childish spite and deadly adult consequences that drive this play." (The Crucible)
